Cover Rationale

Sailing Through Challenges

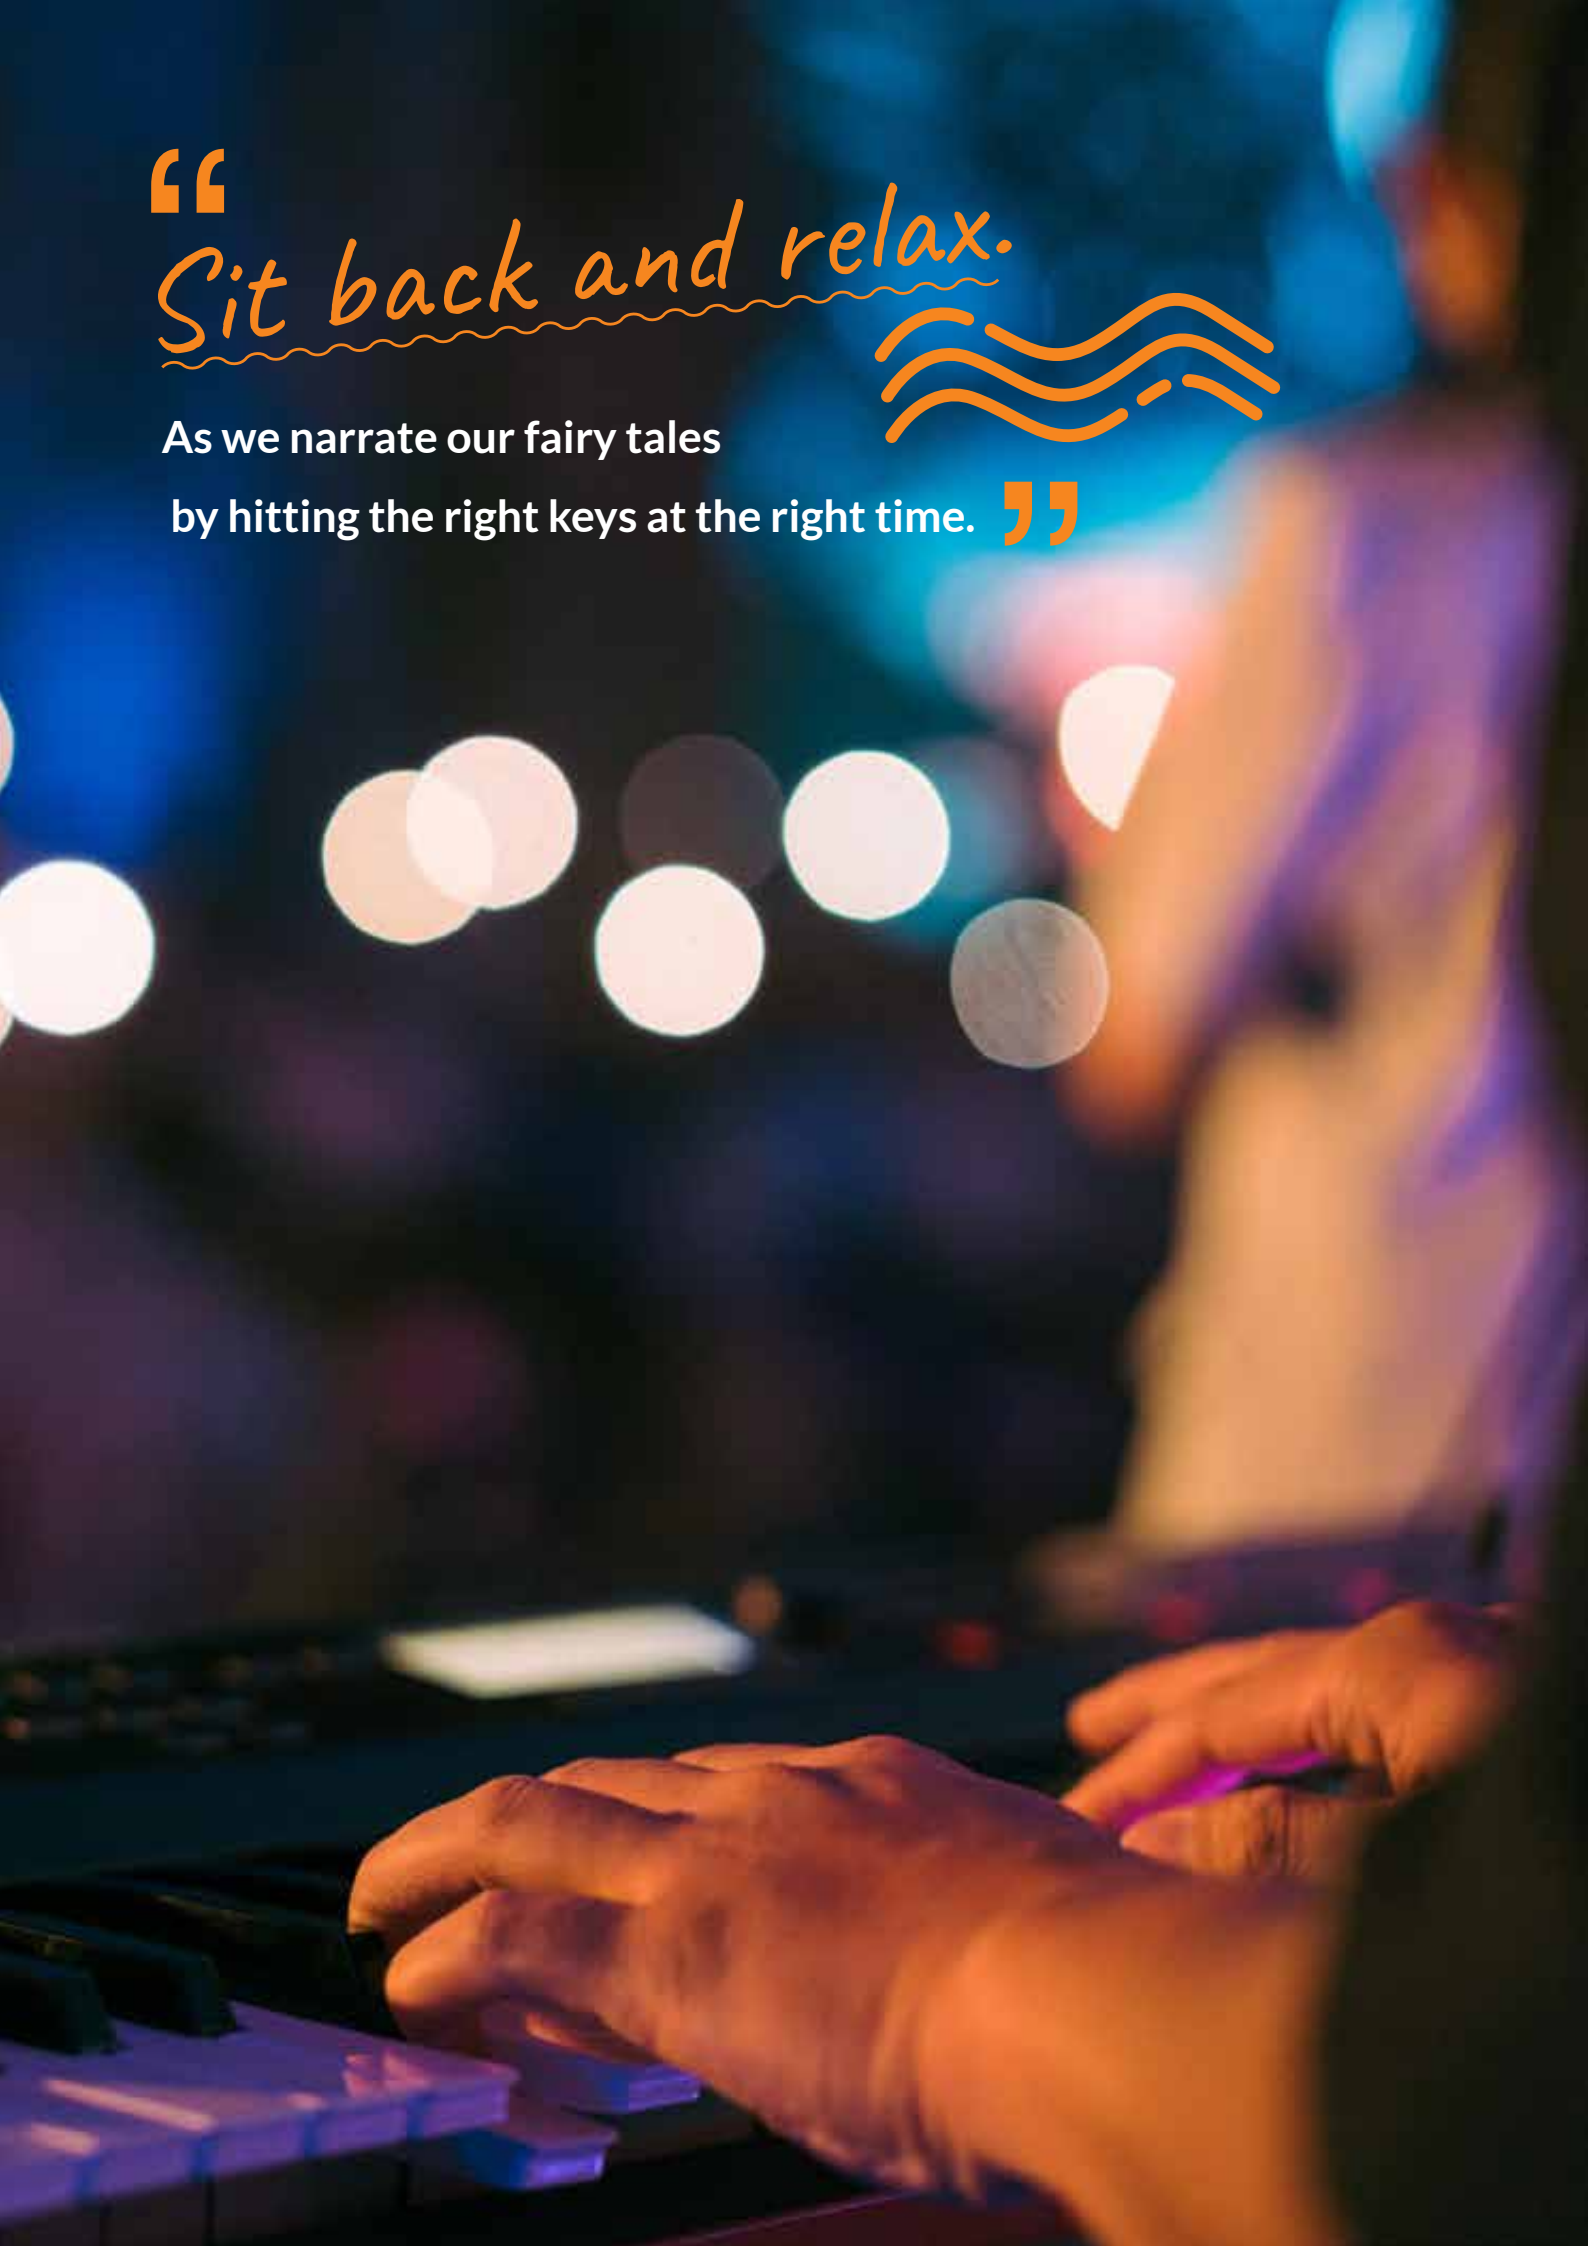

In this Annual Report, Aemulus Holdings Berhad ("Aemulus") aims to pursue the sea of opportunities. The front cover, depicts how we withstand the business challenges that are symbolised as waves. Quoting Winston S. Churchill "Success is not final; failure is not fatal. It is the courage to continue that counts." Here at Aemulus, we overcome the wave of business challenges with our courageous team in design, engineering and development of automated test equipment ("ATE"). We endeavour to continue standing strong and tall; to embrace challenges and volatility with the same enthusiasm and energy as we always have. Aemulus will regularly re-strategise to adapt to every new challenge while continuing to deliver a maximum performance. We are "Sailing Through Challenges" that lie beyond, to reach the horizon ahead of our competitors and to secure our position by exploiting great opportunities.
